Open Door Gallery Showcase Group Exhibit | Open Door Gallery

Havana Gallery 1212 Commercial Drive, Vancouver, Aug 30 - Sept 12, 2012

Showcase features oil and acrylic paintings from all eight Open Door Gallery artists, covering a broad spectrum of styles and influences. The convergence of these talented local emerging painters is a fresh burst of colour onto the canvas of the Vancouver arts experience.

Roots of Life 2 Solo Exhibit | Open Door Gallery

Taf's Cafe 829 Granville Street, Vancouver, JULY 2 - AUG 31, 2012

Roots of Life invites the viewer to accompany Mihaela on a retrospective of her life and contemplate the instrumental link between our corporeal bodies and the core elements of nature. Mihaela decided to show her unique paintings after years of playing with colors on canvas. Her breathtaking acrylic canvasses come alive in a fantastic display of vivid colors.

Reflections Group Exhibit | Open Door Gallery

The Libra Room 1608 Commercial Drive, Vancouver, APR 14 - JUNE 15, 2012

Reflections is a group exhibit that collectively captures the restless spirit of the contemporary West Coast artist. Encapsulated by a contemplative mood of vulnerability and wanderlust, this striking exhibit is well worth a visit to The Libra Room. With a distinct emphasis on the feminine, Reflections is a meditation on the natural beauty of change in both our inner and outer worlds.

The Woman With Red Hair Solo Exhibit | Open Door Gallery

Taf's Cafe 829 Granville Street, Vancouver, MARCH 09 - APRIL 30

One of Mihaela's favourite characters to paint is The Woman with Red Hair, whom she has brought to life in eleven captivating pieces. The Woman With Red Hair series depicts a deconstructed utopia with which every woman can identify. Mihaela delights in sharing with you the fantasies that exist in every woman's heart, like the story of a beautiful spring day, or the story of a rainy afternoon where the rich colours of autumn demonstrate the persistent elegance of life.

Roots of Life Solo Exhibit | Open Door Gallery

The Libra Room 1608 Commercial Drive, Vancouver, DEC 09, 2011 - JAN 31, 2012

Roots of Life invites the viewer to accompany Mihaela on a retrospective of her life and contemplate the instrumental link between our corporeal bodies and the core elements of nature. Mihaela's experience in the artistic world and her previous career as a ballet dancer have influenced her imagination, and her life experiences are all hidden in her art. Her fantastic talent of making a white canvas come alive is unique, and her body of work features a multitude of themes and painting series.
