The Libra Room 1608 Commercial Drive, Vancouver

Tasscha Lico was born in Cracow, Poland and moved with her family to Canada in 2000. Her degree in business and advertising didn't speak to the soul of this artist, and becoming a mother to three busy and beautiful boys took up most of her time and energy; and still does. Although she sources inspiration through books and magazines, some of which are famous subjects, a substantial amount of her work involves portraits interpreted from photographs of family and friends.
