

Marina Wright

BIOGRAPHY

Marina Jenelle Wright grew up on Vancouver Island, BC and currently resides in Langley, BC. She is a University of Victoria graduate obtaining her Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and Sociology. Marina grew up in the beautiful Comox Valley which gave her the opportunity to explore the vast, colourful landscapes of Vancouver Island thus inspiring her west coast art. Her University experience included courses in sculpture, photography, painting and the digital arts all refining her natural born talent which has won her art awards from an early age. Marina's passion is envisioning her own themes and settings to display the colours of her west coast experiences.
